Live Arts Week IX 26 March • 4 April 2020

Xing presents the ninth edition of Live Arts Week in Bologna from Thursday 26 March to Saturday 4 April 2020.

Live Arts Week, the Performance Week created by Xing, expands over two weeks: two separate cycles that intensify on weekends connected by continuous activities. This series of gestures and actions builds a point geography of places and trajectories where one can concentrate and disperse, meet again and re-start. The program unfolds in the city of Bologna by tracing a constellation of spaces dedicated to the differentiation of experience. Among the protagonists of this edition: the south korean artist Geumhyung Jeong, whose first Italian solo show will be hosted by Fondazione Modena Arti Visive (6 March > 2 June 2020); the greek choreographer, performer and soundmaker Katerina Andreou; the british musicians/performers YEAH YOU, dyad composed of father and daughter; the norwegian choreographer and performer Mette Edvardsen together with the english composer Matteo Fargion; the dance-makers Cristina Kristal Rizzo and Charlie Laban Trier; musician, performer, programmer and inventor of SonoCybernetics Onyx Ashanti from Detroit; the swiss choreographer Yasmine Hugonnet; the british artist and producer Graham Lambkin; the multidisciplinary italian artist Canedioda, active in the fields of sound, performance, design and fashion; and the multimedia artist Riccardo Benassi with Morestalgia, produced by Xing which, after the recent installation in the Bologna train station, will return in the form of a new lecture-performance.

Now in its ninth year of life, Gianni Peng IX, the name that accompanies the festival in its evolution as a transitional phenomenon, continues to stand out in Italy as a rare occasion dedicated to live arts, presenting a heterogeneous programme of performances that revolve around the presence and the perceptual experience of bodies, movements, sounds and visions. Also in this edition Peng weaves through Bologna, connecting with Modena, with a new program of live works (performances, situations, environments and concerts, tests and drifts, with unique dates, productions and previews) presented by important personalities in the international and contemporary research scene.

Live Arts Week gives space to 'existential athletics'. It does not put art before the artists, but exposes to forms of sensitivity and ideas, welcomes hybrid and polyglot works, hosts creative singularity, weaving a sort of counter-design of use. It connects and allows to cross aesthetic tensions and representative practices of the contemporary world.
