SILVIA COSTA/CLAUDIO ROCCHETTI
Melt in walls

sound performance & record launch of Keyhole Mouth (Xong collection - artist records)

Raum
Via Ca' Selvatica 4/d Bologna

Friday 28 March 2025 at 10 pm Xing presents at Raum, its headquarters in Bologna, Melt in walls (it'll happen we touch one another), sound performance & record launch of the new LP Keyhole Mouth by Silvia Costa and Claudio Rocchetti, seventeenth release of XONG collection - artist records.

On the occasion of the launch of Keyhole Mouth, the two artists imagined an ad hoc listening session during which the album will be played and the performative process that led to its creation will be retraced. A live improvisation according to the same compositional principles that mix objects, tapes, recordings, and voice. The sound performance will be based on the reproduction of raw sounds held together by analog devices such as walk-mans and turntables.

The release is on white vinyl, in a limited and numbered edition of 150 copies, including a collector's edition of 20 copies, each accompanied by a keyhole of European and North American manufacture (from the 17th century till today) with the application of an original pen on canvas miniature by Silvia Costa.

Keyhole Mouth is the second collaboration, after Midnight Snack, between performer Silvia Costa and musician Claudio Rocchetti. Surrounded by objects and materials of different origins found by chance and arranged like sets, triggers for extemporaneous and fugitive narratives, Silvia Costa acted in the solitude and modesty of locked rooms, creating a series of unseen gestures and of which only a sonic memory remains. Barely audible excerpts of words, thoughts jotted down on a mental page, already forgotten and confused, mingle with the sound trails of actions, movements, steps, in a material and affective relationship with the most common objects.

A lighter, a rock, a newspaper. A chair, a pair of shoes, scissors.

Still lifes or enigmas to be deciphered. Claudio Rocchetti's elaboration of these fragile and wild sounds gave rise to a concrete music, marked by compositional strategies that are based on the use of various sounds, vocalized, shouted, breathed, beaten, rubbed and recorded. Frequencies and dust from another world, to be heard without being heard, to be spied with the ears instead of the eyes, through the keyhole, without disturbing. This Keyhole is the crack, the mouth from which the sound comes. It is like a region of the space-time, isolated from the rest of the universe, that attracts you towards a dark and obscure centre where little is seen, much is imagined in listening.

The album will also be presented:

Claudio Rocchetti is a musician and composer whose research is mainly focused around concrete pastiches as the result of hardware live manipulation, turntable feedbacks as well as various recorded sources and objects. The work of Claudio Rocchetti is a deep plunge into thick sound, investigating its innermost workings. Using a variety of devices such as turntables, audio cassettes, samplers, radios, and microphones, often incorporating other objects and traditional instruments, Rocchetti builds compelling structures that employ sound as sheer matter, mass, and impact. The tarry, mesmerizing hues that characterize his 'music objects' are grounded in layers of sound detritus. From techno rhythms to slow melodies, edgy constructions to samples of choirs and strings, Rocchetti builds layered structures of elusive elements whose sources are often hidden, and enacts a mirror play which may cause dizziness. Apart from his main solo project he is also part of 3/4HadBeenEliminated with Valerio Tricoli and Stefano Pilia, half the duo Olyvetty with visual artist Riccardo Benassi and he melts together with noise-funk duo G.I.Joe and Stefano Pilia into In Zaire power quartet. He also played in projects with Jooklo Duo (as Hypnoflash), double bassist Klaus Janek and with Mattin, Bowindo, Fabio Orsi, M.B. and in the doom metal band Deadsmoke. His most recent works include collaborations with director and performer Silvia Costa, and Lenz theatre foundation. His works have been released by labels such as Hundebiss, Die Schachtel, Presto?!, Second Sleep, Holidays Records and Xing, among others. He is also the founder (with Kam Hassah) of Musica Moderna, a label focused on field recordings, sound poetry and sound art. Co-founder, with Alice Rocchetti, of the publishing house Black Letter Press in recent years his focus shifted into book making and exploring the written matter as he did with sounds. The most recent results can be seen in the book An Imitation of Life published by Kohlhaas in 2024.

Xong is the name of the collection produced by Xing, a vinyl-only record label of works by both Italian and international personalities linked to the variegated worlds of live performativity. The collection explores a geography of artists who present this sonic field as a platform to expand their staged worlds. "The space of the record" is given focus and amplifies their poetics as both a sonic and physical phenomenon. Xong is a unique project that draws out divergent understandings of the performative and live arts, beyond genre and intersecting between different practices. Xong collects a series of original creations that constitute an expanded program. Each physical record is a numbered edition on white vinyl hosting the solidification of the gesture. A wave upon wave, a series of "Music-Non-Music" to actualize both the artists and listeners imagination.

The records are distributed in the experimental music and art circuits. Main retailers for international sale: Soundohm (mail order) and Flash Art (only collector's editions). International distribution: Les presses du réel.
